

Emma Patricia Hallman

Obituary

Emma Patricia Hallman was born May 23, 1930 to Edward Perry and Christine Butler Hallman in Washington, DC. She was educated in the DC Public Schools. She attended St. Frances Academy Catholic School with the Oblate Sisters of Providence in Baltimore, MD. She later returned to DC Public Schools and attended Dunbar High School. She graduated from Dunbar and attended Howard University. She was a member of the Women's Army Corps from 1951-1955.

Her career included positions with the DC Department of Welfare, OED/VISTA/ACTIONS and HUD.

She was an active member of the Sodality at Nativity Church as well as an active member of The League of Women Voters, serving in both the DC and National Chapters. She was also a member of the Afro-American Historical Society and she served as President of its Montgomery County Chapter.

Pat loved to travel. Among the many places she visited were Africa, France, Spain, Turkey and many of the Caribbean Islands. She was an avid reader, subscribing to five newspapers and numerous periodicals.

Among her survivors are relatives, Edgar Page, Yvonne Brooke, Velda and Janice Henson, Romaine Stanton, Lawrence Hallman and Linda Hallman-Barr, other relatives and many friends.